

Sheldon T. Anderson
Board chair

Sheldon T. Anderson began his term as board chair of United Way of Miami-Dade in July, 2009. He is president of Northern Trust, NA for Miami-Dade County with responsibility for all banking, trust and investment activities.

Prior to being named president, Anderson was senior vice president and senior banking officer for Miami-Dade County with responsibility for private banking, international banking, commercial lending and the Aventura, Key Biscayne, Doral and Coral Gables offices of Northern Trust.

Anderson joined Northern Trust in 1992; prior to that, he was senior vice president at Southeast Bank. Anderson, a Miami native, is a graduate of Ohio State University with a degree in International Studies. He and his wife Florence have two sons.

Anderson is active in many civic organizations including board member of the Adrienne Arsht Center for the Performing Arts; Beacon Council; Miami Dade College Foundation, Inc.; Museum of Contemporary Art (MOCA); the 200 Club of Greater Miami and New World Symphony; he serves on the Carrollton School of the Sacred Heart Board of Trustees; Cleveland Orchestra Musical Arts Association of Miami Trustees; Miami Museum of Science & Planetarium Board of Trustees and the UM Sylvester Board of Governors. Sheldon also serves on the advisory board for the University of Miami School of Law Center for Ethics & Public Service. He is a member of the Council for Educational Change (Executive Pass Program). He is past president of Riverside House and the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation and is a past board member of the Gesu Church Foundation.