

United Way Women United

Women United brings women together in the spirit of philanthropy and service through advocacy, volunteer opportunities, professional development luncheons, networking and social events. More than 2,700 strong, they are Miami-Dade's most influential women who are passionate about making a difference.

From improving the quality of early childhood education to strengthening families to make them more resilient, Women United is committed to responding to critical community needs and bringing lasting change to Miami.

With an investment of $1,000 or more annually, members set a strong example for others to follow.

Membership benefits

From meaningful volunteer opportunities to access to a network of tens of thousands of dedicated female philanthropists, members receive the following benefits:
