NEWS RELEASE

Need help finding child care?

The Early Learning Coalition of Miami-Dade/Monroe can help parents find child care in the more than 300 child care programs that remain open in Miami-Dade and Monroe Counties.

The Early Learning Coalition can help parents who are looking for child care placements for their children. Programs are licensed by the Florida Department of Children and Families and most have sufficient space to accommodate new children. All programs are required to adhere to Governor DeSantis' and Mayor Gimenez' executive orders regarding social distancing, group sizes and health and safety. About the Early Learning Coalition of Miami-Dade/Monroe:

The Early Learning Coalition of Miami-Dade/Monroe is a nonprofit organization dedicated to ensuring that children in Miami-Dade and Monroe counties have an opportunity to receive high-quality early education. The organization was established following the enactment of the 1999 School Readiness Act. The Early Learning Coalition supports the school readiness of more than 50,000 children ages birth to 12 years old through a variety of innovative prekindergarten and early learning programs, while also encouraging parental involvement in the quest for educational success. Through a community-based, collaborative approach, the Early Learning Coalition of Miami-Dade/Monroe is committed to promoting early learning, advocating for better public policies on behalf of children, and preparing every child for success in both school and life.
