FUNdraising ideas

Engaging and easy ideas that put a little fun in your fundraising

This year's campaign will challenge your creativity since so many of us may remain in hybrid or remote workplaces. Here are some new ways of engaging all your team members while continuing the fight for a stronger Miami.

Carnival-themed party

- Whether it is a dunk tank, ring toss or a pie in the face, employees love participating in carnival themed activities for a small donation, especially when top executives are involved

Parking spot prize

- Dedicate a few select parking spaces and sell tickets for a chance for winners to park like a VIP

Days off drawings

- Host a "days off drawing" in which employees purchase tickets for a chance to win days off from work

Cooking competitions

- Discover who the best chef is at your workplace by organizing a competition based on popular television shows such as "Iron Chef" or "Chopped"

Halloween fun

- Try a pumpkin carving or a costume contest by department to build team spirit and celebrate the holiday

Lip sync or karaoke competitions

- Ask executives or departments to go head to head in some singing fun for a cause
- Employees can donate to ensure their executive is the "lucky" winner to perform
- Executives can buy their way out of the competition, for a cost

Online gaming tournament

- Ask co-workers to donate $5 to join the festivities
- They can create teams to play a variety of games vs. different departments
- Some ideas include:
  - Trivia
  - Poker
  - Chess
  - Pictionary
  - Family Feud
