HELP SOMEONE WHO’S STRUGGLING TODAY.
GIVE NOW.
Although our community continues to return to normal, so many of our most vulnerable neighbors still struggle. The hardships which have always challenged Miami worsened with the pandemic. Much work remains to be done.

54%* of Miami-Dade households are either in poverty or one emergency away from falling into poverty.

150% increase in crisis hotline calls requesting help with finances, food, health, and suicide and crisis intervention.

4 out of 10 people have been forced to access a food bank.

4 out of 10 people have reported anxiety or depressive disorder impacting their mental health due to COVID-19.

Shelly-Anne, a Jamaican-born mother of four was forced to drop out of high school when she became pregnant with her first child. Through sheer determination and hard work, she achieved her dream of becoming a licensed nurse in 2019.

As an essential worker, Shelly-Anne has bravely faced challenges that first-time nurses rarely experience in their lifetime, all while raising her four children, two of which have special needs. During the COVID-19 pandemic, United Way provided her family with care packages and support from our Early Head Start-Child Care Partnership site in Carol City Elementary, where her son Norick attends and currently receives weekly therapy with an Infant Toddler Developmental Specialist.

Thanks to the support she received from United Way programs, Shelly-Anne can now devote herself fully to the care of both her family and her patients.

“United Way will be there for you too, a life saver.”
