Learn more about the new Giving in Florida report that allows the nonprofit sector to understand the motives and incentives behind charitable giving behavior in our state and by region.

AUGUST 4TH, 2022
3:30 PM – 4:30 PM
Virtual Event

REGISTER HERE:
https://bit.ly/3Ro4X4v

- Provides analysis of how giving and volunteering patterns change with different donor demographics with the goal of encouraging the nonprofit sector to better connect with a wider range of donors.

The study:
- Offers unique insights into the wide range of ways that Floridians give back, including giving money directly to friends and loved ones, contributing to crowdfunding campaigns, and helping in ways other than giving money.
- Identifies areas of opportunity for the nonprofit sector.

Thank you to our partners: